April,2 8 May,2	2013 ISPA Pain Management Camp The Pain Management Camp is a 5 day course that aims to teach participants about pain assessment and management in an interactive manner. This Pain Management Camp started out as a pilot pain education project from the International Association for the Study of Pain (IASP). It was first held 2 years ago in Thailand during the ASEAPS 2011 conference and was very well received then. This year it will be held from 28th April to 2nd May 2013 in conjunction with the ASEAPS 2013 conference in Singapore. Association of south-east Asian Pain Societies Conference Website: aseaps2013.org/painmanagementcamp	Singapore

May, 9-11	4th International Society Advance care planning and end of life care – putting words into action The theme of the conference, “Putting words into action”, reflects upon the need to take action through doing the basic and applied research, taking action on implementing advance care planning programs into all health care settings and, most importantly, ensuring that the words that people record in their advance care plans and advance care directives are respected and acted upon when it counts. We want to increase the evidence base for advance care planning and ensure that evidence translates into better end of life health care. International Society of Advance care planning and end of life care Email: acpelconference@acpelsociety.com Website: http://www.acpelsociety.com/conference/	Melbourne Australia
May,30 June, 2	13th World Congress of the European Association for Palliative care The 2013 congress theme will be “Palliative Care – the right way forward”. The major thematic thread in the scientific program will relate to access to palliative care as a human right. The programme will discuss the gaps where this human right is not yet available, but also will discuss different models and ways to make palliative care available and accessible for everybody who needs it. This discussion touches ethical, legal, economical, medical, and social challenges which all need to be addressed. European Association for Palliative care Email: heidi.blumhuber@istitutotumori.mi.it amelia.giordano@istitutotumori.mi.it Website: http://www.eapc-2013.org/registration.html	Prague, Czech Republic
