About Integration Users of the JCS integration system LaCool

Japan Convention Services recommends to register Personal Information such as the entered name and Affiliation to the JCS integration system LaCool as "Integration User information" for the convenience of customers. Becoming an "Integration User" has the advantage that it does not become necessary to enter Personal Information again in any other Convention matters which we are in charge of.
We shall handle the Personal Information of the customers registered as "Integration User" responsibly as a company, and our company has acquired a privacy mark. For details, see "About Handling of Personal Information."
If you want to be registered as an "Integration User," check the following box.
If you do not want to be registered as an "Integration User," the entered Personal Information shall be handled only in this matter. Even in this case, we shall handle the Personal Information of customers responsibly as a company, and our company has acquired a privacy mark as described in "About Handling of Personal Information."
